Printed On 100# Capistrano Gloss
Please pass along or recycle this piece

When you want to make a statement, you want to use Capistrano.®

The go-to, bright-white freesheet for high-end publications like corporate brochures, catalogs, and fashion and art magazines, Capistrano makes a first impression on clients and prospects that cannot be replicated. This paper will not be outperformed—the line is competitive with any similar product and has captured the attention of some of the largest printers in the country.

CAPISTRANO PERFORMS

At West Linn Paper Company, our papers prove that you don't have to be big to be great. In fact, our Capistrano family of products can go toe-to-toe with any #2 coated paper you can name. Your paper should look great and perform flawlessly—and none surpass Capistrano in quality or consistency.

Our performance and service really shines

Capistrano stands out with on-press performance, delivering bright, clean, crisply detailed images—the visual punch every project needs. Capistrano is a bright, blue-white #2 coated paper that offers exceptional image reproduction and reliable press and bindery performance. An ideal candidate for big runs and multi-component projects, Capistrano applications include corporate collateral and annual reports, catalogs, magazines, advertising inserts, books, posters and direct mail.

For decades, West Linn Paper Company has manufactured and continually improved our coated papers to ensure the most brilliant print performance. And when it comes to service, we really shine. As a small independent mill, we are able to offer the kind of personal service and flexibility that enables our customers to meet the most demanding standards and deadlines. Our goal is to be a true business and creative asset for today's designers, printers, publishers and corporate end-users.

Committed to sustainable sources

West Linn Paper customers can also be confident that we are committed to sustainable methods of paper production. We are very aware of the need for sound environmental practices and have made sustainability an integral part of our culture. The Capistrano family of papers is now available with the option of FSC or SFI certification and comes with West Linn Paper Company's chain-of-custody assurance. You know that you are getting a reliable paper that comes from documented sustainable sources.

Capistrano does it all

More choice? Greater creative freedom? Better yields? Capistrano does it all. A bright, blue-white paper that delivers exceptional results for the most challenging projects, Capistrano also offers a range of finishes and weights—one that's right for virtually all your communications.
